Disability

Home visiting volunteer

Location: Enfield

A local association is looking for volunteers who can offer practical and emotional support to visually impaired people in their own homes for two hours per week.

Volunteer Centre Enfield is working with blood cancer charity Anthony Nolan and Bambos Charalambous MP, who represents Southgate and Wood Green, to support an Enfield resident who urgently needs a stem cell transplant to save his life.

Anthony Nolan volunteering

Location: various

Volunteering with Anthony Nolan is an incredible opportunity to help save lives. By joining as an education volunteer, you'll play a vital role in inspiring young people aged 16 to 30 to join the stem cell register. Through engaging presentations in schools, colleges, and youth groups, you'll educate them about the lifesaving potential of stem cell, blood and organ donation. Your sessions will help bust myths, spark curiosity, and empower the next generation of donors.

If you prefer a more hands-on approach, you can become a donor recruitment volunteer and take part in recruitment events at schools, universities, and army barracks. You'll welcome potential donors, explain the donation process, help them complete their application forms and guide them through their cheek swabs. Your enthusiasm and knowledge will be essential in ensuring these events run smoothly and successfully. Both roles come with full training, ongoing support and the chance to be part of a community that's making a real difference. Plus, after six months, you can request a professional reference.

Ref: 1891

This will involve befriending, outings to the shops, cafes or walks in the park, and reading correspondence. You must be willing to commit to at least one hour a week or two hours every other week for 12 months. A DBS check is essential. Training is given and travel expenses are paid.

Ref: 1848

Mini railway crew

Location: Waltham Abbey

Volunteers are needed to welcome and assist visitors as they approach the mini railway station, be the whistleblowing station supervisor, help passengers on and off the trains, drive the trains and help with setting everything up and shutting down each day. There are also other tasks if you are keen to help with the behind-the-scenes work of maintaining the rolling stock and track.

Client support assistant

Location: New River Sports Centre

A charity supporting stroke survivors is looking for volunteers with first aid training qualifications to physically assist the charity's members in accessing equipment in the gym at a level appropriate to their needs, as specified by the gym instructor. Tasks include helping with members' coats and bags and getting them properly set up on the gym equipment. You will also help the members with functional skills, supporting their balance, coordination and flexibility using exercises that have been practised in a group or one to one. A DBS check is essential for this role. Volunteers must be available to attend two sessions a week, with flexible times. Training is given and travel expenses are reimbursed.
